Romans speaks just as powerfully to us today as it did to the first century church!

- It speaks morally, about adultery, fornication, homosexuality, hating, murder, lying, and civil disobedience.
- It speaks intellectually, telling us that the natural man is confused because he has a reprobate mind.
- It speaks socially, telling us how we are to relate to one another.
- It speaks psychologically, telling us where true freedom comes to deliver men from the burden of guilt.
- It speaks nationally, telling us our responsibility to human government.
- It speaks internationally, telling us the ultimate destiny of the earth.
- It speaks spiritually, answering man's despair by offering hope for the future.
- It speaks theologically, teaching us the relationship between the flesh and the spirit, between law and grace, between works and faith. Most of all, it profoundly brings God Himself to us!
